The blank body diagram (left) is ready for the patient to complete. On the right an example body diagram shows a possible representation of pain experienced by someone with chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (extrapolated from Borge et al, 2011).